PETERHOF

Peterhof is comprised of the 300 year-old Grand palace, Upper and Lower Park, and a number of delightful little palaces built as private residences of the tsars. The Lower Park with its 150 fountains and the largest fountain ensemble in the world is a real masterpiece of garden art.

SUMMER GARDEN

The garden with a collection of sculptures and the Summer Palace, which was the first Emperor’s residence. It is one of the places where you can feel the atmosphere of Peter’s time.

CABIN OF PETER THE GREAT

It is a unique monument of St Petersburg’s architecture. The cabin, which is the only wooden structure of the city foundation period that survived until nowadays.

PETER AND PAUL FORTRESS

Originally built to protect the city, the fortress soon became Russia’s ‘Tower of London’, a place for imprisoning political prisoners that included Peter’s own son.
